How it works

1

Set up once
Add your payment method (credit card or eGIRO).

2

We pay your landlord automatically
Your rent + service fee is deducted monthly. Your rent is deposited in your landlord's bank account on the due date.

3

Earn miles every month
Miles are credited to your Heymax account after every rent payment. Max Miles never expire.

Secure payments by card or bank
Credit card payments are processed using PCI-compliant infrastructure. Card details are encrypted and handled by certified payment processors.
eGIRO payments are protected by bank-grade security, including encryption, authentication, and transaction authorisation by participating banks.

Payment infrastructure trusted by major rental operators

Secure identity verification
